ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 15.—St. Louis took the odd game of the series with Boston today 7 to 1 and advanced to within half a game of first place as Uew York lost to Chicago. New York opens a three-game series here tomorrow and should the visitors lose the first contest, the league leadership will shift back to the locals.

Van Gilder allowed only five hits, did not walk a man and got two hits out of four trips to the plate, one being a double.

Catcher Pat Collins, substituting at first for George Sisler, showed fine form, handling 10 chances without an error, making 25 in two days without an error.

Sisler's injured shoulder was reported as somewhat improved today and he expressed hope of being able to play tomorrow, but his physicians have advised against it, saying the star is in no condition to get back into the game for several days. Score:

Tilden and Jonhson Will Play to Decide Tennis Championship

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—William T. Tilden II, and William M. Johnston meet tomorrow on the courts of the Germantown Cricket Club to decide the national lawn tennis championship of the United States for 1922.

Sole survivors of players who a week ago swung racquets in quest of the title, they reached the final round by decisively defeating opponents of international calibre. Johnston won from Vincent Richards, of Yonkers, N. Y., 8-6, 6-2, 6-1, and Tilden eliminated Gerald L. Patterson of Australia 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.

The meeting of "Big and Little Bill" on Saturday will be their third clash in the championship final of a national tournament.
